How GriefShare works

It may be hard for you to feel optimistic about the future right now. If you've lost a spouse, child, family member, or friend, you've probably found there are not many people who understand the deep hurt you feel.

This can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have many questions about things you've never faced before.

“Going to GriefShare feels like having warm arms wrapped around you when you're shivering.”

GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life. Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements:

Video seminar with experts

Each week your GriefShare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. These videos are produced in an interesting television magazine format featuring expert interviews, real-life case studies, dramatic reenactments, and on-location video.

Support group discussion with focus

After viewing the video, you and the other group members will spend time as a support group, discussing what was presented in that week's video seminar and what is going on in your lives.

Personal study and reflection

During the week you will have the opportunity to use your workbook for further personal study of the grieving process and to help sort out your emotions through journaling. Your group will spend time discussing questions and comments from the workbook study.

We need more people to come out to the abortion clinic at 2030 Coffee Road. They perform the RU486 (abortion pill) Monday through Friday.

The clinic is open from 8AM to 5PM. We usually just go out to the clinic on Thursdays because that is when they do the surgical abortions, but since we added Wednesdays from 8AM to 2PM (during the 40 Days for Life) we have noticed it's made an impact on the clinic.

If we could get more people to come out anytime they can (in groups of at least two) I believe it would make a huge difference.

To all of those that make the sacrifice to come out to the clinic, I thank you, and so do the babies you've saved.

OFFICE OF BISHOP MYRON J. COTTA, D.D.

REMEMBER & REJOICE, AS ONE!

Bishop's Reflection

January 2023

Blessed & Happy New Year to All!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I wish you and your loved ones a Happy New Year 2023! As we continue our journey through this Christmas season, we are reminded of the maternal care of Our Lady as Mother of God, and Our Mother, as we begin this New Year.

In this month of January, as we celebrate and acknowledge the Epiphany of the Lord, let us be mindful of how we as clergy, religious and laity will manifest the presence of Jesus in and through our lives in the new year.

Will we be willing to embrace the challenge of 2023 to be true missionary disciples: disciples of life and human dignity; disciples of justice; disciples of peace and unity? My brothers and sisters, the grace of salvation will empower us to achieve this! We find affirmation of this in the reading of Titus 2:11-14 proclaimed at the Midnight Mass of Christmas:

"Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good."

Let us be "eager to do what is good" throughout this New Year 2023.
Happy New Year to all!

In the Peace of Christ,

Bishop Cotta

Pray for the Sick

Heavenly Lord, we need Your divine intervention in our lives. We need You to empower our bodies with Your holy presence, and Your arms envelop our minds to soothe this pain. We shall not buckle under the strain and when it's a new day, our healed body will be a representation of Your power. Thank You, Your holiness for such attention to our lives, and In Christ's name, Amen.
