GRIEF SHARE

How GriefShare works

It may be hard for you to feel optimistic about the future right now. If you've lost a spouse, child, family member, or friend, you've probably found there are not many people who understand the deep hurt you feel.

This can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have many questions about things you've never faced before.

"Going to GriefShare feels like having warm arms wrapped around you when you're shivering."

GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life. Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements:

Video seminar with experts

Each week your GriefShare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. These videos are produced in an interesting television magazine format featuring expert interviews, real-life case studies, dramatic reenactments, and on-location video.

Support group discussion with focus

After viewing the video, you and the other group members will spend time as a support group, discussing what was presented in that week's video seminar and what is going on in your lives.

Personal study and reflection

During the week you will have the opportunity to use your workbook for further personal study of the grieving process and to help sort out your emotions through journaling. Your group will spend time discussing questions and comments from the workbook study.

Please join us Tuesday at 6 PM.

BISHOP'S MONTHLY REFLECTION

January 2024

My Dear People of God,

"A holy day has dawned upon us.
Come, you nations, and adore the Lord.
Today a great light has come upon the earth."

This Gospel Acclamation of Christmas Day announces to the world that God is calling all of humanity, all nations, to adore him! It is a call to the people of our day and age, to acknowledge that, truly, "a holy day has dawned upon us in this New Year! We are invited in this New Year to: "Come and adore Him!"

The reality is: the present nations of the world have not bent their knees in humility before the Eternal God. They refuse to adore him. With hardened hearts, they refuse to acknowledge his sovereignty over their self-rule. But, with the grace and mercy that comes with the holy day mentioned in the Christmas Acclamation, we must turn away from a disordered adoration and false worship.

This fallen world replaces true worship of God with false gods: idols of celebrity, wealth and greed, materialism and consumerism, power and control, injustice, hatred, discrimination, and war. These are the false gods of the world that beg to be adored.

In this New Year, 2024, we must seek and desire, a new perspective, an attitude aligned and properly ordered, to true adoration and worship of God above all things. The nations of the world will never be able to truly change until they put their trust in God. As Jesus revealed to St. Faustina: "Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to My mercy." (Diary 300) His grace and mercy will enable this disordered world to see and put things in true perspective: that God is God, and we are not God! We are not called to be gods onto ourselves. We, as Pope Francis mentions: "...are called to abandon our pretense of autonomy." Jesus must be the Lord in all areas of our lives! Let us trust Him, and entrust all to Him, in this New Year

May the great light, mentioned in the Acclamation illumine the minds, hearts, and very souls of our world leaders. Let us welcome the great light, Jesus, so that he may enter our lives and homes and transform us into better and more faithful worshippers who seek the God of true peace. It is a peace that is found in the One, who is Peace itself, Jesus - God with us!

May we, in this Year of the Lord 2024, integrate and be supported by the 4 spiritual pillars: believe, adore, hope, and love. These pillars can empower us to love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves. May the love of Jesus be the driving force in our lives as we entrust all to him. May the 4 spiritual pillars strengthen the domestic church - the family - in 2024.

A holy day has truly dawned upon us as a diocese! "Come, let us adore Him!"

A Blessed and Happy New Year to all!

Bishop Cotta

Pray for the Sick

Heavenly Lord, we need Your divine intervention in our lives. We need You to empower our bodies with Your holy presence, and Your arms envelop our minds to soothe this pain. We shall not buckle under the strain and when it's a new day, our healed body will be a representation of Your power. Thank You, Your holiness for such attention to our lives, and In Christ's name, Amen.
