Dear Friends,

The Church asks that, if the diocesan bishop judges it opportune, “a Pastoral Council is to be established in each parish, over which the pastor presides and in which the Christian faithful, together with those who share in pastoral care by virtue of their office in the parish, assist in fostering pastoral activity” (Canon 536 §1). The Pastoral Council, being a representative group of the entire parish, is the principal group which assists the Pastor in articulating the vision for the parish and proposing practical goals and objectives.

Last summer, I decided to expand the Pastoral Council to nine members. In the fall, we accepted nominations and those who were nominated were invited to an informational meeting about what the Pastoral Council is and how it operates. Of those who expressed interest, names were drawn at random to fill the five open seats. Council members serve terms of three years which are renewable twice.

As your shepherd, I am always open to receiving feedback regarding how we can better serve our parishioners. In addition, these Pastoral Council members can also be contacted should any member of the parish have any concerns:

Marco Alvares	Erma Ornelas
Angela Couto	Tom O’Connor
Victor Lopes	Jonathan Silva
Elizabeth Lopes	Sam Silveira
Melissa Meneses

I am grateful for their willingness to serve our parish community in this way as we, with Mary, build up the Lord’s Kingdom.

In Christ,
Fr. Larry

BISHOP’S MINISTRY APPEAL PRAYERFUL GIVING

Over the next few weeks you’ll be hearing more about the Bishop’s Ministry Appeal and how the ministries of the Diocese serve all of us in the parishes. The theme of the BMA this year is Prayerful Giving. Let me give you an example of how our parish is served by the Diocesan ministries. In the past, we have helped finance a new well, supported the We Care and Gospel Mission shelters and the Turlock Pregnancy Center. In the coming years, these funds will support capital projects and repairs here at OLA.

Dear Clergy, Religious and Laity,

One of the pillars of the National Eucharistic Revival includes giving increased attention to the way we participate in the Mass. As human beings, created both spiritual and physical, we engage our entire selves in worship of God. This is why we have set postures and gestures in the Mass, for the priest, the deacon, and the gathered faithful. These postures can and do change over time to help people to participate and express their faith.

One area where there is often confusion, with regard to posture, is during the Communion Rite. In the United States, the norm is for the faithful to kneel following the Lamb of God, unless the diocesan bishop determines otherwise. This has remained the norm in the other dioceses of the Central Valley, that they kneel. Since the early 2000s, meanwhile, our diocese, along with several others in the country, changed to having the faithful stand at this point of the Mass. However, over the past several years many dioceses which chose to stand at this point in the Mass have returned to the posture of kneeling.

While standing at this moment is in line with the general practice of the Roman Rite worldwide, it has often become an opportunity for confusion with dioceses in the same region having differing practices. Both postures have their value: standing together helps us to recognize our unity as the Body of Christ, while kneeling is seen to better express an attitude of adoration before our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. Even though both are legitimate, there does not seem to be sufficient reason to have a different practice from the great majority of the other dioceses of our country.

Therefore, in the Diocese of Stockton, beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 14, 2024, the practice during Mass will be that the faithful kneel following the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God), in accord with the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, number 43.

The Diocese of Oakland will be changing back to kneeling on the same day, meaning that with the change we will have the same practice as most of our surrounding dioceses.

This change also has implications for posture following Communion. The norm given in the General Instruction is for the faithful to stand until the last person has received Communion. Even though the norm is to stand, the common practice in the U.S. has been to kneel after receiving Communion. When the U.S. Bishops asked the Vatican about whether this custom could be retained, the Vatican replied that the instruction to stand after Communion was meant as a general indication, and not intended to be strictly applied. The faithful should therefore know that they may follow the customary U.S. practice of kneeling following the reception of Holy Communion.

In the Peace of Christ,

The Most Reverend Myron J. Cotta
Bishop of Stockton

GRIEF SHARE

How GriefShare works

It may be hard for you to feel optimistic about the future right now. If you've lost a spouse, child, family member, or friend, you've probably found there are not many people who understand the deep hurt you feel.

This can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have many questions about things you've never faced before.

"Going to GriefShare feels like having warm arms wrapped around you when you're shivering."

GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life.
Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements:

YOUR JOURNEY FROM MOURNING TO JOY

Video seminar with experts

Each week your GriefShare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. These videos are produced in an interesting television magazine format featuring expert interviews, real-life case studies, dramatic reenactments, and on-location video.

Support group discussion with focus

After viewing the video, you and the other group members will spend time as a support group, discussing what was presented in that week's video seminar and what is going on in your lives.

Personal study and reflection

During the week you will have the opportunity to use your workbook for further personal study of the grieving process and to help sort out your emotions through journaling. Your group will spend time discussing questions and comments from the workbook study.

Please join us Tuesday at 6 PM.

Classes begin Tuesday, January 23, 2024

Pray for the Sick

Heavenly Lord, we need Your divine intervention in our lives. We need You to empower our bodies with Your holy presence, and Your arms envelop our minds to soothe this pain. We shall not buckle under the strain and when it's a new day, our healed body will be a representation of Your power. Thank You, Your holiness for such attention to our lives, and In Christ's name, Amen.
