GRIEF SHARE

How GriefShare works

It may be hard for you to feel optimistic about the future right now. If you've lost a spouse, child, family member, or friend, you've probably found there are not many people who understand the deep hurt you feel.

This can be a confusing time when you feel isolated and have many questions about things you've never faced before.

"Going to GriefShare feels like having warm arms wrapped around you when you're shivering."

GriefShare groups meet weekly to help you face these challenges and move toward rebuilding your life. Each GriefShare session has three distinct elements:

Video seminar with experts

Each week your GriefShare group will watch a video seminar featuring top experts on grief and recovery subjects. These videos are produced in an interesting television magazine format featuring expert interviews, real-life case studies, dramatic reenactments, and on-location video.

Support group discussion with focus

After viewing the video, you and the other group members will spend time as a support group, discussing what was presented in that week's video seminar and what is going on in your lives.

Personal study and reflection

During the week you will have the opportunity to use your workbook for further personal study of the grieving process and to help sort out your emotions through journaling. Your group will spend time discussing questions and comments from the workbook study.

Please join us Tuesday at 6 PM.

Em recentes reportagens da mídia sobre os pedidos de proteção contra falência sob o Capítulo 11 apresentados pela Arquidiocese de São Francisco, a Diocese de Oakland e a Diocese de Santa Rosa, e a intenção recentemente declarada da Diocese de Sacramento de solicitar proteção contra falência sob o Capítulo 11, a Diocese de Stockton também foi mencionada. Os fiéis cristãos recordarão que a Diocese de Stockton entrou com pedido de proteção contra falência em 2014 e saiu do processo do Capítulo 11 em 2017. A Diocese de Stockton não faz parte de nenhum pedido de falência atualmente.

Dado que estes pedidos de falência provavelmente estão a acontecer devido ao grande número de queixas de abuso sexual apresentadas em todo o estado, o Bispo Myron Cotta continua a encorajar todas as pessoas a rezarem pelos sobreviventes de abuso sexual.
