ABOUT THE MISSION

What, exactly, is sin? Mortal sin? Venial sin? How does it affect our lives? What entails authentic conversion? As Christians, we are called to pursue a life of virtue as opposed to vice. With this Parish Mission series, we will learn that the message of Divine Mercy is intimately linked to the desire of one striving to become the "best version of self" with God's grace and of one pursuing a life of holiness, each one according to his or her own vocation and state-in-life – whether single, married, widowed, or as a consecrated priest, brother, or sister.

BISHOP'S MONTHLY REFLECTION
November 2026

"For all the saints,
who from their labors rest,
who Thee by faith, before the world confessed;
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia! Alleluia!"
William Walsham How (1864)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On the day we were blessed with life, within the womb of our mother, the years of life began to steadily tick away. The reality had been set: "Our days are numbered." We find ourselves faced with the existential fact of that appointed time when our immortal soul will leave our earthly body and we will experience the passage of death and with it, judgment!

But, for all of us who are baptized, the journey of faith is filled with hope. Baptism invites us to grow in holiness and to embrace our baptismal vocation - to become a saint! This month of November reminds us that God's hope for us is to desire the gift of sanctity, and to realize that we, as the Body of Christ, the Church, share in the Communion of Saints. We are to remember, as we ask the Holy Ones for their prayers, we, too, are to intercede for the souls of the faithful departed in Purgatory as they await their entrance into their heavenly dwelling place.

For Catholics, November is the month of remembrance. As we reflect upon the "day of reckoning," the passing from this life to eternal life, may we, in a spirit of charity, offer Masses, prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters who await their "face to face" encounter with God. May the purifying fire of the mercy of Jesus, hasten the souls in Purgatory to experience the beatific vision and the communion of holiness with all the Saints! May they be granted rest and peace.

Let us pray:
"O Lord, bestow on your departed servants your great mercy and, to those you have endowed with the grace of Baptism, grant also the fullness of eternal joy. Through Christ our Lord." (Prayer after Communion - Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed)

Mary, Queen of Saints, pray for us. Amen.

In the Peace of Christ,

Bishop Cotta
